The company re-quires for its business at least 20 tons of milk a day to start with and already contracts have been made with nearby farmers for over half that amount, and it is expected that the necessary supply will be contracted for within forty-cinht bours. Options for the land and forbuildings have already been secured in three localities. The plant will cost at least $60,000 to install, and will furnish work for fifty men to start with. If the plans go through as laid out, the new industry will be in full working order by April I, next. This will be the buggest and most the important industry landed, in northern THE. Vermont, and is particularly valuable to outside farmers, as well as the city as the concern agrees to pay at leas twenty live per cent more for its mill twenty five per cent more for its milk than farmers are receiving now. The company will manufacture exclusively Van Camps cream, now so extensively advertised and with which they cannot begin to supply the trude fast annual phia, etc. begin to supply the trade fast enough.

DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

Annual Report Just Issued Shows Interesting Figures.

The official report of the 36th annua meeting of the Vermont Dairymen's as-sociation, which was held in Burlington early in January, has been issued. The report was compiled by Secretary F. L. Davis of North Pomfret and contains e complete account of the proceedings f the convention, which was said to be be most successful in the history of the rganization.

According to this report, there are at present 398 life members of the association and 148 annual members for 1906. Of this number 37 live outside

The report also contains a list of the 4.00 a. m. Week Days Only for Wilcreameries and cheese factories of the State, showing that there are 204, di-
